Just stop it, darling. We've worried enough about our kids, our parents, the economy, health care, terrorism, the Toyota recalls, and the BP oil spill

It's time to...laugh!

On Wednesday evening, August 25, Mimi and the Hilton Garden Inn Cleveland/Twinburg are presenting what critics are already calling "The Ultimate Girls' Night Out." Celebrated actor and motivational speaker Mary Faktor will perform her smash-hit, one-woman show "The Six Ages of Woman," which chronicles the life of "Vicki" through hilarious phone conversations with her best friend "Madge."

Although you never see Vicki's husband, children or best friend, by the end of the hour-and-fifteen-minute show, you'll know them all—quite intimately. Watch time pass before your eyes as Vicki changes from starry-eyed teenager discovering love, to newly wed bride full of romantic dreams, to expectant mother anticipating the joys of parenthood, to frenzied housewife with over-active toddlers, to menopausal woman reentering the workforce, to grandmother beginning her retirement years.

You will likely see a part of yourself during some phase of Vicki's metamorphosis, and you will laugh at yourself while doing so.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you. Cry...and your doctor will prescribe Prozac."

Actor Mary Faktor, who wrote the show in the 1980s, continually updates it to keep up with the times. "This is the fourth time I have seen this performance," one audience member told Mimi. "And it gets better every time."

Tickets to "The Six Ages of Woman" are just $28 and may be purchased online at www.MimiDeals.com.

But Wait, There's More...

To complete "The Ultimate Girls' Night Out," you'll enjoy Executive Chef Michael Jacobs' hand-crafted hors d' oeuvres, including signature bacon wrapped scallops in maple sesame glaze; succulent mini beef Wellington; Teriyaki-seasoned chicken satay; delicate crab cakes topped with honey mustard sauce; the Hilton's award-winning potato pancakes served with grilled duck breast and jalapeno grape salsa; and fresh mixed summer vegetable purses with Boursin cheese in a flaky phyllo dough.

These delicious treats will be butlered by the hotel staff from 6:00-7:30 p.m. and are included in the ticket price.

In addition, throughout the evening all alcoholic beverages will be specially priced at just $5 – including the famous "Mimitini."

Chef Michael's hors d' oeuvres will be served beginning at 6 p.m. and theater doors open at 7 p.m. The show begins at 8 p.m. All tickets are general admission.

Recently, Mary's show at both Crown Plaza and The Cuyahoga Falls Sheraton sold out on MimiDeals.com in just a few days. This event is expected to sell out, too, so be sure to visit the website early.
